Online Ordering

Online Ordering is simple. Choose the items you wish from your State Order Form. In the Store, select which downloadable example(s) you are purchasing - a single exercise, multiple exercises, or a complete set. Pricing will vary for these options.

Payment Options

You may use your credit card securely via PayPal for Visa, MasterCard, Discover Card and American Express. We also accept checks and purchase orders. Just send a copy of your order form with selections circled and payment to: Festival Music Press, 127 Virginia Fern Circle, Madison, AL 35757-7568. For faster service: email info@festivalmusicpress.com or call 256 885-6909. Purchase orders require a copy of the signed PO by e-mail before we can authorize your order. PDF files will be authorized for download once we receive confirmation of credit card payment or a copy of the PO.

Shipping & Delivery

PDF purchases are available for download once payment has been authorized. Single PDF files can be downloaded from the website (festivalmusicpress.com) or will be sent via email for customers purchasing with check or purchase order. You have 3 downloads available for each item. Keep at least one in reserve in case you need to replace an item.

Returns & Replacements

PDF sales are final. If you are unsure about a purchase, call first for more details prior to purchase. If we err in sending the wrong material, you can keep it or delete it with our apologies, while we send the correct item(s). Replacement volumes or complete sets of previously purchased materials are available at half the cost of the original item. Individual pages can be replaced for $1/page.

We recommend making a backup copy of PDF files on a flash drive or CD or external hard drive to avoid having to replace the originals. Call us (256 885-6909) to place an order for replacements, since the store cannot provide that discount.

Privacy & Security

Festival Music Press is committed to protecting your privacy. We may use the information we collect to periodically notify you about new products we think you will find valuable. If you would rather not receive this information, you may send an e-mail any time to info@festivalmusicpress.com with your wishes.

Festival Music Press does not sell, trade or rent your personal information to others. Neither do we store any credit card information on our site.

You can shop at Festival Music Press with confidence. We have partnered with PayPal, a secure payment processor to accept credit cards safely and securely for our customers. The company adheres to strict industry standards for payment processing, including: 128-bit Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology for secure Internet Protocol (IP) transactions. Industry leading encryption hardware and software methods and security protocols to protect customer information. Compliance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS).

Licensing & Reproduction Policy

Materials are licensed to the original purchaser. Purchasers can make as many copies as needed, year after year, as long as they have the master or PDF file. If you are using a personal credit card, but will be reimbursed by an organization, the license will be in the name of the organization. If the licensee is not clear from the available information, you may be contacted to confirm. View our Licensing and Reproduction Policy below.

Festival Music Press Policy for Reproduction

Definition of Original Purchaser: The Original Purchaser is the individual, single school, church, or choral group licensed to make and use copies of reproducible music purchased from Festival Music Press. Any other use of Festival Music Press reproducible materials requires prior written permission of the publisher.

1. Individual Purchase

An individual who purchases reproducible music from Festival Music Press with personal, non-reimbursed funds is the Original Purchaser and is licensed to make and use copies of the music listed on the Reproduction License only for choral groups directed by the Original Purchaser. Copies may not be sold, distributed, or donated to any other individual, organization, church, or school. If the Original Purchaser leaves an affiliated school, church, and/or other organization, the license to reproduce remains with the Original Purchaser. The originals and any copies made during the Original Purchaser's tenure must be removed, unless Festival Music Press is notified in writing of a transfer of ownership to a single school, church, or other organization.

Example: The Original Purchaser leads choirs at a middle school, a high school, and a church. S/he may use the purchased music at all three locations. If s/he leaves one or more of the locations, all copies must be removed, since neither the schools nor the church have reproduction rights.

2. Single School Purchase

A single school that purchases reproducible music from Festival Music Press with school or organization funds or a district purchase order is the Original Purchaser. If materials will be shipped to a central warehouse or other third-party recipient, a purchase order must identify the single school that will be the licensed Original Purchaser. Only choirs directly affiliated with the Original Purchaser may make and use copies of the music listed on the Reproduction License. Copies may not be sold, distributed, or donated to any other individual, organization, church, or school.

Example: Adams High School purchases music using a school or district purchase order, a school or school organization check, or a school or individual's credit card that is subsequently submitted for reimbursement. Adams High School is the Original Purchaser and cannot sell, distribute, or donate copies to any other individual, organization, church, or school, within or outside its own school district.

Multiple School Purchase: School districts may apply for multiple school reproduction licenses. Each named school will receive its own master copies and reproduction license. Contact Festival Music Press for details.

3. Single Church Purchase

A single church that purchases reproducible music from Festival Music Press with church or church organization funds or an individual's check or credit card that is subsequently submitted for reimbursement is the Original Purchaser. Only choirs directly affiliated with the Original Purchaser may make and use copies of the music listed on the Reproduction License. Copies may not be sold, distributed, or donated to any other individual, organization, school, or church.

Example: Mount Tabor Lutheran Church purchases reproducible music. Mount Tabor Lutheran Church is the Original Purchaser and cannot sell, distribute, or donate copies to any other individual, organization, school, or church, within or outside its own diocese or denomination.

4. Single Civic or Professional Choral Group

A single choral group that purchases reproducible music from Festival Music Press is the Original Purchaser. Only this choral group may make and use copies of the music listed on the Reproduction License. Copies may not be sold, distributed, or donated to any other individual, school, church, or organization.

5. Contests, Festivals, Workshops, Conventions
